Public Questions to the Scrutiny Committee – 17 January 2022

“Are the [Scrutiny] Committee aware that a written complaint was made to the Monitoring Officer on 1st November 2021?” and “Are the committee aware that the Monitoring Officer was advised in an email that an allegation was being made against a Senior MDDC Officer in respect of them committing a fraud. A fraud as defined in Section 2 of the 2006 Fraud Act?”

Response of the District Solicitor/Monitoring Officer

The answer to both questions is “no”. The committee’s role does not include dealing with complaints regarding the conduct of individual members or officers, including allegations of fraud.
