Allocations Policy and Procedures	Director of Business Improvements and Operations	March 2016	Homes PDG	See note	Cabinet	3 yearly	The Social Housing White Paper was published in November 2020 with the title: "The Charter for Social Housing Tenants". One of the themes contained within the White Paper was that tenants should have a good quality home and neighbourhood to live in. In Chapter 6, which set out the plans to deliver this, the Government explained that there would be a forthcoming review of the way in which housing is allocated. This will be in order to ensure that this is done in the fairest way possible, and achieves the best outcomes for local places and communities. The Allocations Policy is a strategic housing policy which should govern the allocation of all social homes in the District, whether they belong to the Council in its role as a landlord, or housing associations or other registered providers of social housing. Therefore, a decision has been made to delay the review of the Allocations Policy pending the publication of more guidance and/ or legislation by the
