NOTES

Appeals

The Environmental Protection Act 1990 provides that where a notice under section 46 requires an occupier to provide receptacles, that person may appeal to a magistrates' court against the notice, either on the ground that any requirement specified in the notice is unreasonable, or on the ground that the receptacle(s) in which household waste is already placed is or are adequate.

If an occupier wishes to appeal in this way, the appeal must be made within 21 days beginning either with the last date specified in the notice by which the receptacle(s) must be provided, or, where no period is specified, from the day on which the notice was served.

If such an appeal is made the court may either quash or modify any requirement in the notice or may dismiss the appeal.

Pending the determination of the appeal by the court the notice shall have no effect.
